Ladies and Gentlemen,

it is with great pleasure that we welcome you to the second edition of the Orthopaedic-Radiology Correlation Conference.

Following the success of our first meeting, we return with even greater ambition and scale. This time, we are proud to welcome an even larger group of distinguished lecturers from the University of California, San Diego (UCSD) – leading experts in global radiology and orthopedics. Their presence ensures a high scientific standard and offers unique opportunity for dialogue among specialists from around the world.

The conference serves as a platform for sharing experiences, engaging in constructive discussions, and fostering inspiring interactions between the orthopedic and radiology communities.

We believe this event is not only a source of valuable knowledge, but also a catalyst for collaborative projects and deeper interdisciplinary cooperation.

We wish you a productive meeting!
